

Adopted April 29, 2014

Resolution Honoring Edward F. Coyle

Whereas Edward F. Coyle was the founding Executive Director of the Alliance for Retired Americans and has served in that capacity since 2001; and

Whereas he has grown the Alliance to more than four million members, 33 state chapters and 1600 local organizations; and

Whereas he has been a fierce champion for Social Security and Medicare and has dedicated the past 12 years advocating on behalf of older Americans; and

Whereas he has been involved in national policy issues for 36 years; and

Whereas prior to coming to the Alliance and during his tenure at the Alliance, he worked on progressive causes that help improve the lives of working Americans and retirees.

Therefore, be it resolved that the Alliance for Retired Americans congratulates and thanks Edward F. Coyle for his lifelong leadership and wishes him the best on his retirement.
